WOOLEN SCHEDULE

One More Important Feature of Tariff Bill Taken Up.

GOOD HUMOR IN THE SENATE

Senator Carter Tells All Abount Wool Industry From Sheep's Back to Factory—Dolliver and Warren Have Colloquy.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 8.—There was a great deal of good humor and many pleasantries injected into the debate on the woolen schedule in the Senate today, Mr. Dolliver being the central figure. He offered several amendments and announced his intention of presenting a number of others appealing to the Republican members to vote with him because, he said, these amendments would justify the attitude of the Republican party in advocating a protective tariff.

Mr. Smoot, assisted to a large extent by Mr. Warren, who is considered an expert on the woolen industry, defended the finance committee's recommendations with regard to that schedule. The various amendments proposed to the House bill by the finance committee of the Senate are intended to restore the Dingley provisions of the woolen schedule, which, in some instances, provide higher duties than the Payne bill as passed by the House.

One of the interesting features of the day was a lecture on the woolen industry from beginning to end by Mr. Carter, who brought forth a large box filled with samples of various grades of wool. To the Senators who gathered about him he explained each step in the manufacture of woolen goods from the raising of the sheep to the making of the garment. He familiarized the members of the Senate with the uses of shoddy, waste, noils, tops and the various grades of wool.

Mr. Dolliver who occupied most of the time during the day, proposed an amendment which would assess the duties on woolens on an ad valorem basis, according to the shrinkage of the wool. He became involved in an argument with Mr. Smoot as to the feasibility of such an arrangement of the woolen duties, the latter contending that it would be impossible to collect the duties on that basis because the American manufacturers want their wool in the grease and hardly any two of them use the same methods of scouring the wool.

Much amusement was afforded the Senate when Mr. Dolliver and Mr. Warren became involved in a colloquy during which they stood within a few feet of each other and each endeavored to convince the other of the soundness of his opinion regarding the advisability of assessing the woolen duty on the value of the wool in the cloth. Mr. Dolliver said he would propose amendment which would carry out this proposition but Mr. Warren in order to illustrate the small proportion of the entire cost of a woolen garment which is dutiable asked Mr. Dolliver to examine the suit which he was wearing. Mr. Dolliver said it appeared to him to be a very good suit, whereupon Mr. Warren explained that the cloth in the suit cost only $4.00 while the making and the trimmings cost $42, showing that the duty on the $4 worth of cloth was trifling compared with the entire cost of the suit. The usual night session was omitted and at 5:30 the Senate adjourned for the day.

Reserves ... North Carolina National Guard ... Camp—Baseball and Other Diversions at U. S. A. ... ost.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fort Caswell, N. C., June 8.—The Artillery Reserves from the State are here. Sunday the advanced detachment from Greensboro and Salisbury arrived and under command of Capt. Cox, corps quartermaster, proceeded with the work of getting the camp in shape for the coming troops.

The Wilmington company arrived at 1 P. M. yesterday and Newbern at 5 P. M. Both went into camp immediately and began the life of a soldier for ten days. The Greensboro and Salisbury companies reached the post at 9 o'clock last night on the steamer Wilmington. Nothing of a military nature was carried on yesterday, only the preparation of camp, etc.

This morning was devoted to the formation of artillery reserve companies into sections in accordance with coast artillery drill and regulations, assignment to positions and preparation of manning tables; individual instruction on taking positions; nomenclature of material and theoretical instruction on coast artillery drill regulations. There was a dress parade this evening by Regulars and Reserves and a lecture on camp sanitation.

The Wilmington company has been assigned to the eight-inch disappearing rifles. Field secretary Julian L. Smith, of the Y. M. C. A., is here and has opened a tent where the men are provided with writing material and the leading daily papers are on file for the use of both the Regulars and Reserves. The tent is already becoming very popular.

In a baseball game yesterday afternoon in the Caswell League the Tigers were defeated by the Cubs, 12 to 2. This was the Tigers' last game of the season and their chance for the cup went with it unless the Senators win the two remaining games from the Cubs, in which case the League will be tied up with an average of .500 for each team. The fine work of the Tigers in the last three weeks made them favorites for the cup, but in the crucial part of the race they had to present a line-up of cripples. Shanifelt had his ankle dislocated in a game a week ago and ever since has gone to the game on a pair of crutches, taking his place behind the bat for his team. Zinn, third baseman of the Tigers, had been laid up in the hospital for the past two or three weeks with spinal meningitis and typhoid from the effects of which he passed away Saturday morning. His remains were sent to his home in Ohio yesterday for interment.

WINSLOW BADLY DISABLED

Torpedo Boat Ran Aground With Massachusetts Militia on Board—Was Picked Up Off Frying Pan Shoals by Seminole.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Beaufort, N. C., June 8.—The torpedo boat Winslow, with part of the Massachusetts' naval reserves aboard, after two accidents in two days, returned to Morehead City today with machinery badly disabled. Her port shaft was bent, her boiler out of commission and the pumps, at which the crew had labored incessantly, working badly. Most of the crew will return by train to Boston and New Bedford and the boat may have to be towed to a dock for substantial repairs.

The Winslow, which has been cruising along the North Carolina coast, was giving the Massachusetts' militiamen a taste of a sea life. She was bound from Charleston, S. C., to Norfolk, Va. While just east of the Frying Pan Shoals Sunday her boilers became disabled and she was picked up by the United States revenue cutter Seminole and towed into Beaufort. Here some repairs were made and again the vessel got under way seaward but ran aground on a sand bar in Bogue Sound near Morehead City. The little boat stuck fast and for a while all efforts to get her off were unavailing.

Washington, June 8.—Less than half a dozen enlisted men of the navy accompanied the New Bedford, Mass., naval reserves aboard the torpedo boat Winslow which has had a series of mishaps on her cruise.

The vessel being in the hands of the naval militia and under their control entirely, no reports of the accidents sustained by her have reached the Navy Department.

The commandant at Norfolk has sent a tug from there to tow the vessel to Charleston.

Raleigh, N. C., June 8.—The torpedo boat Winslow is tied up at the pier below Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City. The boat is badly disabled, the machinery being in bad shape. She will be there several days and will have to be towed to Charleston.

United States Attorney General George W. Wickersham, of the Class of '77, delivered the alumnia address at the 40th annual commencement of Lehigh University, at South Bethlehem, Pa., yesterday. The honorary degrees of doctor of laws was conferred on Mr. Wickersham.

SOUTH'S VETERANS

First Day of Ninteenth Reunion in Tennessee's Bluff City.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWER PARADE

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Memphis, Tenn., June 8.—From songs of war, from tap of drum and shrill scream of fife, from martial uniforms and accoutrements of battle, the scene changed this afternoon at the Confederate reunion to dainty femininity in Paris gowns and flowers.

The beautiful flower parade was a delightful transition and it appealed not only to the visitors but to the veterans as well. Over a hundred stylish equipages, decorated with the most exquisite blossoms of the South and carrying the flower and beauty of Southern womanhood, passed slowly through the city streets for nearly three hours. Every imaginable design was carried out. Every possible color combination was developed and at the side of each carriage rode two or more society men, wearing the colors of the ladies, whose escorts they were. Interspersed in the line were twenty bands of music.

One of the pretty features of the parade was a guard of honor of one hundred old Confederate officers mounted, and at each officer's side attired in snowy white rode a young girl. The parade followed the close of the afternoon session of the reunion at which General Theodore S. Garnett, of Norfolk, and Colonel Louis S. Gunn, of New Orleans, were the principal speakers.

After the parade, the Veterans and Sons of Veterans jointly met to honor the Women of the Confederacy and inspect designs in bronzes for State monuments in their honor.

Earlier in the day the Sons of Veterans completed their organization and listened to addresses by Governor Sanders, of Louisiana and Governor Noel, of Mississippi.

After the reception to the Women of the Confederacy tonight there was an informal dance to the sponsors and maids of honor at the Tri-State Club.

The fight for the next re-union has reached an interesting stage. Nashville and Chattanooga, Tenn., Mobile, Ala., and Houston, Texas, are the main contenders. The Texas town seems to have a complete organization and the entire city is placarded with signs bearing the statement: "Houston in 1910." The other sities are not asleep and the prediction is that only the final casting of the ballit will reveal the name of the winner.

The heat today was intense and the humidity great. As a result there a score or more of prostrations (two fatal) most of the victims being the old men in gray. The promise from the Weather Bureau tonight for cooler weather, if realized, will be welcomed by every one.

CRUSADE ON BUCKET SHOPS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., June 8.—Lewis Foster, John M. Gorman, Walter Campbell, A. C. Baldwin, Edwin Heil and J. M. Scott were each sentenced to a term of six months in jail and each to pay a fine of $200 and costs by Judge Thompson in the United States District Court here this morning, for using the United States mails to further schemes to defraud in conducting a bucket shop. The defendants operated the bucket shop known as the O'Dell Brokerage Company.

William J. O'Dell came to Cincinnati from Savannah, Ga., with $10,000 cash and opened a bucket shop. He soon had branches in all the principal cities and towns of the West and South and his business was the largest of the kind in the country, being one of the largest customers of the Western Union Telegraph Company. When O'Dell died a few years ago he left an estate valued, it is said, at $2,000,000.

All the six defendants sentenced today were clerks and telegraph operators for O'Dell. They continued the business. They reorganized the O'Dell Brokerage Company with a capital of $250,000, of which only $19,000 was paid. The public furnished the defendants more than $1,000,000, it is said, to be divided among themselves. The case will have a widespread influence in the Chicago Board of Trade against bucket shops over the country.

BLACKHAND LAIR

CHIEF OF GANG ARRESTED

When Whole Story is Known the Country Will be Astounded—Hundreds of Business Men Pay Tribute to Cutthroats.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., June 8.—United States Postoffice Inspectors from Cincinnati believe they have discovered the headquarters of the "Blackhand" in this country at Marion, Ohio. This belief is based on documentary evidence found today when Sam Lima, of Marion, Ohio; Antonio Vicaio ,of Columbus, Ohio, and A. Marfis, of Denison, Ohio, were arrested today. Arrests are said to have been made also in Pittsburg, Pa., and inspectors left for Bellefontaine to make several more there. Inspector Oldfield states than when the whole story is known the country will be astounded.

The arrests were made simultaneously today in the three towns after a search of six months for the men who sent threatening letters to John Amicon, a fruit dealer of Columbus, O., demanding that $15,000 be paid in Pittsburg. The handwriting in the letters to Amicon is identical with that in the letters received by Antonio Rizzo, a fruit dealer of Cincinnati, who died suddenly several weeks ago after refusing to obey the demand of a "blackhand" letter to pay $1,000 or forfeit his life. He died after eating a banana given him by a stranger.

A dispatch from Marion states that Jose Rizzo was arrested in that city. The postoffice inspectors say they have discovered evidence showing that Marion is the headquarters of all Blackhand societies of the country and they alleged that Samuel Lima is the head of the organization. The contents of the safe in the Rizzo store bear them out in this asscrtion, they say. They say they found that hundreds of business men in all parts of the State had been paying tribute to the gang.

STRIKE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Employes of Mount Airy and Eastern Railway Out.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winston, N. C., June 8.—All the employes of the Mount Airy & Eastern Railway, a mountain line operating between Mount Airy, N. C., and Danube, Va., a distance of 19 miles, went out on a strike today. That is, all of them struck except S. A. White, the superintendent of the line, who donned an engineer's jumper, took hold of the throttle and ran the "regular" train from Mount Airy to Danube and back unassisted.

The striking trainmen claim that the management of the road, which has been in the hands of a receiver since 1905, has failed to pay them their salaries for a long time past.

WON'T VETO TARIFF BILL

President Taft Intimates That There is No Foundation for Such Reports—MacVeigh Not His Spokesman.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 8.—Senate and House leaders who are directing the course of the tariff bill and who will be members of the conference on the bill after it has passed the Senate, took measures today to ascertain whether there was any foundation for reports that President Taft would veto the bill.

They have reached the conclusion that there is no basis whatever for such reports. As late as this evening the President told one of the Republican leaders that no one was authority to suggest that he had in mind the veto of the tariff measure.

It was learned today upon the highest authority that President Taft had not read the Chicago speech of Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh before the Secretary left Washington for Chicago and that the President was not aware of the character of the speech to be made. This does not mean that the President finds fault with Mr. MacVeagh's utterances, but merely answers the report that it was an official view of the tariff situation and that it expressed Mr. Taft's opinion.

Republican leaders were inclined to assign to political inexperience Secretary MacVeagh's failure to consider that any speech delivered by him likely would be taken as the view of the administration. Many of the leaders point to the fact that the speech was delivered to an audience which sympathized entirely with demands for revision downward but at the same time they assert that a careful reading of the speech would indicate that it had been misconstrued in many quarters.

TRINITY COMMENCEMENT

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., June 8.—The annual sermon by Dr. Hugh Black, of New York, the re-election of President Jno. C. Kilgo and the faculty at a meeting of the trustees of the institution, concluding with the alumni address and banquet in the afternoon, were the features of the second day of Trinity College commencement, which is regarded in many respects to be the most successful and interesting in several years.

The presence of Dr. Black, who is one of the best known and most noted ministers in the world, gave distinction to this commencement event and he was greeted by a tremendous crowd. His sermon based on the limitation of man and their progress as prisoners of hope conveyed a fine impression and his masterly effort was enthusiastically received. It was considered one of the grandest sermons ever heard in the State. The principal address at the alumni meeting was made by Rev. W. A. Lambreth, whose subject was "By-Products of Trinity." It was a large gathering of the old classes and an interesting event. It is expected that several important announcements will be made by President Kilgo tomorrow in regard to additional instructors and the future work of the college.

Durham, N. C., June 8.—Incensed at Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, because he cancelled at the last moment an engagement to deliver the annual address at the Trinity College commencement tomorrow, President Kilgo tonight from the rostrum accused the Senator of unfair treatment.

"Trinity College has always tried to be fair to audiences," said Dr. Kilgo, "and this is the first time any man has treated us unfairly. Senator Dolliver has had ten days to make us this announcement and he awaits until the last moment to embarrass us."

Then, after announcing that Rev. Hugh Black, of New York, would deliver the address instead and stating that Senator Dolliver, in the telegram he had sent this afternoon gave physical exhaustion and tariff duties as his reason for declining, stepped from the rostrum and declared, it is alleged, to a group of friends who surrounded him.

"I would as soon look to a boot-black for wisdom or character as a United States Senator. I wouldn't trust some to cultivate a peanut patch."

STRIKE FOR WHITE SUPREMACY

Contentions of White Engineers on Georgia Railroad to Be Arbitrated—Object to Negroes Over Whites.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., June 8.—The strike of the Georgia Railroad firemen for seniority of whites over negroes passed formally into the arbitration stage today when the firemen announced Congressman Thomas W. Hardwick, of Georgia, as their arbitrator under the Erdman Act to settle pending disputes.

Reuben Arnold, of Atlanta, was named by the firemen as their counsel. The firemen's statement was issued by E. A. Ball, second vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and addressed "to the people of the State of Georgia. In part it follows:

"On Monday afternoon June 7, I had a personal interview with Mr. Scott who is representing the railroad interest, at which meeting to avoid going to the trouble of arbitration, I offered to Mr. Scott that if he would give us the seniority to the white man over the negro on the Georgia Railroad we would have no objection to his employing 25 per cent. negroes. In the terminal yard (Atlanta) as no negroes had ever been employed as firemen we could not conscientiously agree to any being employed at the present time, with the exception of the position of hostler helpers, which are now being filled by white men.

"We believe this is going a long way on our part to avoid any further trouble, but as this was not accepted, there is only one thing left to do and that is to trust to the good people of the State of Georgia and the arbitrators to give us the white man supremacy in the white man's country.

"They whom we represent are just as sincere at this time as they have ever been in the past and we shall never be satisfied until our cause is victorious.

"We respectfully request that any help or assistance, by statements or otherwise that can be brought to bear to secure this victory will be given us, so that when the verdict is rendered —the white firemen of the State of Georgia will know that they are not subordinate to the negro, even if it does affect the finacial interests of the railroad corporation, for we shall not allow this to be a lost cause."

General Manager Scott, of the Georgia Railroad was not in Atlanta today and no statement was mde as to the railroad's position.

While in no wise rejoicing at the misfortunes of either Rocky Mount or Fayetteville, the local bugs were delighted yesterday afternoon when the first electric flashes on the score board at the matinee at Struthers' spelled another victory for the Sailors on the Railroaders' grounds, making it two out of the series of three with another yet to play.

It was the Sharp-Wolf-Brodie-Kite combination that started the ball to rolling, the first having walked, the second hit a slow ball by the pitcher and was safe, Smith having led off with a drive down to centre scoring Sharp, was sacrificed by Brodie and stole home with Kite at the bat, after Wolf had crossed the plate on fielder's choice of Levy's hit to second, Kite flew out to left field. Krebs got a hit for Rocky Mount in the first, but others were out in order. In the second Wilmington was out, Jayes, short to first while Hemp, the new shortstop, and Wysong fanned. Stephens, first up for Rocky Mount, walked and went to third base on Levy's error but the best O'Gara, Lambert and Moran could do with Wysong's delivery was to pop out to the infield. In the third Smith, who got four hits, one of them a double out of four times up, hit for two bases to left field after Sharp and Wolf flew out to centre, but Brodie ended the hope with a fly-out to second. Rocky Mount's half of the inning was featured by a walk by Johnson followed by a single by Krebs after one man was down but the next two were out in order.

Levy opened the fourth with a double to left and was sacrificed by Kite but was caught napping on third. Jayes fanned. Rocky Mount out in order. In the fifth Hemp fouled out to catcher, Wysong fanned and Sharp was out to pitcher. Rocky Mount out in order. In the sixth Smith hit too hot to third and was safe after Wolf was out to third but Brodie flew out to deep centre and Smith was caught at second. In the sixth the Railroaders saved themselves a shut-out when, after one was down, Sorrell lifted the sphere over left field fence for a home run, but Smith and Stephens were out in order. After Wilmington had her half of the seventh, the game was called for 30 minutes on account of rain and upon resumption of play at 6:10 P. M., Rocky Mount was out in order except Moran who was safe on Sharp's error. In the eighth Hemp and Wysong were out from the infield, but Sharp hit to centre for two bases, Wolf following him with a fan. For Rocky Mount after two were down Brodie cut off at least two bases by Sorrell on a sensational catch in centre, retiring the side.

In the ninth Smith hit too hot for pitcher to handle but was caught at second, Brodie hit safe over third, but Levy hit to short and the side was retired on a quick double, short to second to first. The same double retired Rocky Mount a moment later after Smith had walked and Stephens hit to second; O'Gara flew out to right.

NOT RESPONSIBLE TO BRYAN.

In a recent issue of The Commoner, the Hon. William Jennings Bryan's paper, he attacked the seventeen Democratic Senators who voted against free lumber. Senator Simmons was one of the Senators who came under Mr. Bryan's lash, and in an interview in the Charlotte Observer yesterday the North Carolina Senator spoke of Mr. Bryan with "gloves off," to use an expression of The Observer's Washington correspondent. The Observer's correspondent, under date of Washington, June 7th, says:

Senators Bailey and Simmons, the two most aggressive Democrats in the Senate, went after William J. Bryan with gloves off today. The one spoke in the chamber and the other to newspaper men who called on him. They dared to defy the Peerless One.

In reply to an inquiry as to whether he had anything to say about Mr. Bryan's attack on the 17 Democratic Senators who voted against free lumber, Senator Simmons said no; that Mr. Bryan's opinion as to his action was of no special concern to him; that he had acted upon his own judgment in this matter and upon what he regarded as the interest and wish of his constituents, and he was responsible to them and them alone. "But," he added, "I have something to say about Mr. Bryan's repudiation of our national platform declaration in 1892. In 1892," Mr. Simmons said, "the Democartic national convention nominated Grover Cleveland for President and adopted a platform declaring unequivocally for the repeal of the 10 per cent. tax on State banks.

"On June 6, 1894, a vote was taken in the House of Representatives, of which William J. Bryan was a member, upon a proposition to repeal the tax of 10 per cent. upon State banks, in accordance with the platform declaration upon which Mr. Cleveland was elected. There was a yea and nay vote and Mr. Bryan, together with a few other Democrats, voted with the Republicans and the proposition was defeated. On the day before this vote was taken Mr. Bryan made a speech against this plank of the Democratic platform in which he said: "It has been stated that every Democrat is in duty bound to vote for the repeal of the State bank tax because of the plank relating to that subject adopted by the last Democratic national convention. A platform can only bind those who run upon it.' He contended that this platform declaration bound Mr. Cleveland, because he ran on the platform and accepted the election but he argued that it did not bind him because he was nominated before the adoption of the platform and because he repudiated it in his canvass, and then he added: 'If there is any person in my district who favors a revival of State bank currency, I am not aware of it. In recording my vote against the repeal of this tax I am expressing, therefore, the opinion of my constituents, and carrying out my pledges as well as recording my own best judgment.' In other words, Mr. Bryan was a candidate for Congress in a district in which the Democrats were opposed to this plank in the platform—he wanted to be elected and he joined them in repudiating it. Mr. Bryan repudiated the Democratic platform in the very heat of the fight.

"What effect Mr. Bryan's position in this regard, as leader of his party in Nebraska, had on the electoral vote of the State I do not know, but I do know that Weaver, and not Cleveland, received its electoral vote.

"I am satisfied with my vote on the lumber question. I am satisfied that a large majority of the people of North Carolina approves. It violates no platform pledge and I shall be ready to defend myself to my constituents at the proper time. I surely have no explanation to make to Mr. Bryan—he is not my keeper. I do not think his ipse dixit settles this or any question.

"I think I know something about Democracy. Since 1892, as State chairman, I have for most of the time been the official head of the party in the State. I have not led the party into any pitfalls and I have always led it to victory. I have followed Mr. Bryan for twelve years, but always to defeat and disaster. During that time we have had more than once to utterly repudiate his teachings and preachments to save the party from disaster and ruin."

Senator Simmons speaks with evident heat in resenting Col. Bryan's criticism. Heat or no heat, the North Carolina Senator shows that Col. Bryan is no position to read a lesson in "consistency" to any Democrat.

THE STATE BAR ASSOCIATION.

According to the announcement of L. H. Clement, Esq., of Salisbury, president of the North Carolina Bar Association, the annual convention of the Association will be held in Asheville, June 30 and July 1 and 2. The principal address will be delivered by the Hon. James W. Osborne, of New York. Mr. Osborne is a native of North Carolina and is a brother of Judge F. I. Osborne, of Charlotte. He has won honor and fame in New York, and is one of those Southerners who have given the Northerners a good impression of the brains and manhood of the South.

Charlotte, with its latest boast of having 45,500 inhabitants, is talking of reducing its police force. Greensboro will doubtless think that Charlotte is trying to reduce her force so there won't be enough cops in the city to serve a warrant on the Queen City for false pretense about that city directory enumeration of its growing population.

Remarks the Philadelphia North American: "A government geologist gives the information that Mexican oil is not a menace to the United States." Guess which this information will most delight—the United States or the Oil Man.

Senator Beveridge claimed that he acts on his conscience when it comes to voting on the tariff bill. It actually made Senator Aldrich so mad to find it out that he logically accused the gentleman from Indiana with being a Democrat.

A French count decrees that Mme. Anna Gould can raise the children of her late alliance with Count Boni de Castellane. This still leaves Boni free to go right on raising cain in some shape or other.

A strong fight is to be organized in New York to put Tammany out of business. It has been hinted that ex-President Roosevelt is to return from Africa and go after the Tiger. Go it, Tiger! Go it, Teddy!

Burglars out West found $20,000 in a bed. Never-the-less, the man who spends most of his time in bed will find that there's nothing in it.

—The Raleigh Evening Times has started an agitation for a city abattoir. Charlotte can testify to the good results of such an institution. The News believes that this is the only adequate method of guaranteeing proper inspection of meats, and pure meat supply.—Charlotte News.

—Georgetown University has conferred the degree of LL. D. on Mr. Henry Walters, an alumnus of that institution because "it is a matter of general knowledge that he has displayed a generaus liberality to the needy and, following in his footsteps of his father, no less conspicuous for his culture, he has thrown open to the enjoyment of his fellow citizens his invaluable treasures of art, collected through a lifetime, with a resultant wide recognition of his distinction for culture and artistic taste.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—The wireless people some time ago announced that they were making preparations to begin commercial business and would open offices in this State. It will be seen by an article copied from The Wilmington Star that an office has been opened in that city and that stations will be established in other towns in North Carolina, Charlotte to be included. Wireless telegraphy has long since passed the experimental stage. While its adaptation to commercial uses has been slow in coming, we have no doubt but that in time wireless messages will be flying all over the land. One drawback, so far, to the wireless has been the matter of expense, but in the natural order of things expense will decrease as business increases. We are very much gratified to know that a start has been made in equipping North Carolina with the wireless. With messages flashing and air ships flying through the ether we are indeed entering upon a progressive age.—Charlotte Chronicle.

NEWS OF A DAY IN RALEIGH

Old Bonds Must be Paid—Negro Shot Another in Wake—Delegates to Cotton Congress—Charters Granted Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 8.—An order is made by Judge Connor in the Federal court here that the town of Murfreesboro, Chowan county, must this year pay $5,000 on the old repudiated railroad bond debt of $25,000, a litigation that has had several sensational turns and attracted wide attention. The old road for which the bonds were issued has been torn up several years.

Murfreesboro paid $4,000 on the bonds two years ago by order of Judge Purnell and this year it was sought to get the town off with only a payment of $1,500. Along with the order of the court that the payment this year must be $5,000 there was an intimation by Judge Connor that if there is not obtained a legislative act for funding the remainder of the debt there will have to be an even heavier annual assessment than the $5,000 until the debt is discharged. A Washington, D. C. syndicate now holds the bonds which were originally sold to Jacob Tome, of Baltimore.

Leonard Shaw, a negro 85 years old, was lodged in Wake jail today charged with fatally wounding Dave Hall, a young negro who was paying attention" to his niece 16 years old. Hall came to old man Shaw's house at Auburn last night, it seems, and wanted the niece to go with him to some neighborhood frolic. The old man objected and the two slipped off anyway. When they came back to the house at 10 o'clock the charge is that when they knocked for the door to be opened Shaw stuck a gun out at a window and fired the fatal shot. However, the old man claims that he did not do the shooting at all, but that there were three men in the party and one of them did the shooting before he could open the door.

Governor Kitchin issued today commissions to delegates to the National Cotton Congress, June 21st to 28th at Monte Ney, Ark. They are Colonel Benehan Cameron, Statesville; R. S. Miller, Jr., Charlotte; William Watson, Swan Quarter; S. B. Tanner, Carloeen; J. C. Clifford, Dunn; R. W. Allen, Sanford; W. N. Everitt, Rockingham; B. F. Renfrow, Lewiston; David Clark, Charlotte; W. F. Pickett, Magnolia; W. A. Simpkins, Raleigh.

The Leader Warehouse Co., Winston-Salem, received a charter today with $125,000 capital authorized and $20,000 subscribed by R. B. Horn, J. H. Hill and others for the sale of leaf tobacco. There is also a charter for the Fulton-Smith Tobacco Warehouse Co., Mt. Airy, capital $50,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by J. H. Fulton, J. H. Smith and others. Other charters are to The Brown-Rankin Co., Greensboro, $10,000 capital by A. L. Rankin, S. S. Brown and others for mercantile business, and the Markham-Harris Co., Durham, capital $10,000 by L. B. Markham, Dolean Harris and others for cotton and general textile milling business.

The Wake county commissioners today sold $20,000 bonds for funding the floating indebtedness of the board of road commissioners to E. C. Dennison & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, the premium being $1,674.25.

There's $113.00 in this Piano For You

NEVER before has there been devised a piano-selling plan that saves you so much money or offers such opportunities for free musical education as the Ludden & Bates Piano Club. Join it and you save one-third your piano money—$113—in cash. We sell you for only $287 an elegant cabinet grand piano equal to any $400 piano made, and include with it a complete course of instruction without a cent additional cost. You pay $25 when you become a club member and the balance on easy payments.

This wonderful club offer is due to our plan of selling 100 pianos at a time instead of one. By our plan it costs but little more to sell one hundred than to sell one; besides we are wholesalers and sell to you at the wholesale price, saving the dealer's profit—and all this tremendous saving in selling cost is divided with you.

The Ludden & Bates New Scale PIANO

is backed by a lifetime guarantee to be perfect in every respect—thousands of satisfied customers, many in your neighborhood, will tell you this.

You run no risks in joining this club. If the head of the family dies, we cancel the club contract and give you the piano without payment of another cent. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose.

The Ludden & Bates Club Piano is a full cabinet grand with special copper-wound and steel strings, perfect scale, light, even touch, genuine ivory keys. Magnificent cases of first grade walnut, mahogany or oak. Rich, clear, "singing" tone found only in highest grade pianos.

Write us at once for application blank and description of our club plan. Our experts will select any piano you desire and we'll stake our reputation on furnishing a perfect instrument. Stool and scarf free. Write to-day, as club is now forming.

PLUCK OF A MAGICIAN

Houdin's Experience Among the Marabouts of Algeria.

AN ARAB TRAP THAT FAILED.

The Great French Conjurer Stood the Test and Then by Another Trick Cowed His Infuriated Antagonists. The Story of Palmer's Curse.

There are some points of resemblance between the story of the great French conjurer, Robert Houdin, and the marabouts and the story of Palmer's curse. The first named tale is, strictly speaking, incredible only when regarded from the oriental point of view.

In the fifties the administrators of the French African empire were seriously hampered by the fanatical marabouts, who by their tricks of juggling persuaded their followers of their own supernatural powers and used this belief to fan the spirit of insurrection. Houdin was sent officially on a French warship to Algeria to confound them. While his task proved easy, the trip was not without its dangers.

In Algiers he had allowed himself to be shot at with pistols loaded by the marabouts. But once in the interior, when he was absolutely without the tools of his profession, he was forced to repeat the experiment. He was frightened, but he did not allow his fears to be perceived. He persuaded his audience to postpone the test until next morning in order that he might pass the night in prayer, as he was without the talisman that he needed if the feat was to be performed immediately.

The night he devoted not to prayer, but to insuring his invulnerability, and the next day before a great horde of Arabs he submitted to the test. The French conjurer insisted that in the sight of every one the pistols should be loaded by his enemies themselves. Then he calmly took his place and gave the signal. The sound of the pistol had not died away when Houdin opened his lips, showing the bullet held firmly between his teeth.

His infuriated adversary reached for the other pistol, but the conjurer was too quick. "You could not harm me," he said, "but now see how much greater my powers are than yours. Behold the wall." He fired, and out on the whitewash at the exact spot of his aim there crept slowly a great splotch of blood. The marabouts, in terror, cowered before the prowess of the European magician.

Less fortunate in his fate than Houdin was the English orientalist E. H. Palmer. He fell a victim to fanaticism, but the story of his terrible curse will long be repeated and cause shudders to run round Bedouin campfires. Only upon the theory of metempsychosis can be explained his extraordinary powers of assimilating the languages and ideas of the east.

He was brought up in the conventional atmosphere of England, but when he turned his attention to oriental subjects he did not merely learn; he simply absorbed. Not only were Persian, Hindoostanee and Arabic perfectly familiar to him, but he knew every obscurity of the slang of the camel drivers, and during his long voyages in the east his European origin was never suspected. Just as Houdin had been officially employed by the French government, so Palmer was by the English, but in a more intimate capacity.

Before the exploit that proved fatal he had many dangerous adventures. Once he was led away by a treacherous guide and betrayed to an Arab gang who meant to rob and kill him. He guessed their intentions, and when they began to inflict upon him petty annoyances he pretended not to notice them. Finally, however, the abuse became too obvious to be longer ignored. He sprang to his feet and drew out a letter that he had received from an English lady. "This to me! Down on your knees, you dogs, and kiss the handwriting of the sultan!" Down on their knees, cowed and groveling, fell his 300 captors.

In 1882 Palmer was sent on a secret service mission among the Bedouin tribes to persuade them against joining the rebellion of Arabi Pasha. He was betrayed and shot. But just before his death he laid upon his assassins the weight of his terrible curse. Now, in the east a curse is something not to be regarded lightly, and Palmer's was one of particular awfulness.

It was his last means of defense, and, while it did not save him, it blasted the hearing and destroyed the lives of those upon whom it fell. They shrank away from one another in horror. Some of them confessed their crime and were executed; all of them within a few months came to violent deaths. Palmer's curse is still remembered with terror in the east.—Bookman.

Got More Than the Cigar.

He was dining at a restaurant in the neighborhood of Leicester square, and while he was sipping his black coffee and firing 500 glances to the minute at a girl in a fluffy pink and white dress a stranger gracefully commandeered his overcoat. He had just reached the door when the owner tapped him on the shoulder.

"Pardon me, sir," he said meekly, "but would you allow me to get another cigar from my coat pocket in case I do not meet you again?"

Keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire called conscience. —Washington.

The boat subsequently went aground off Morehead City as reported yesterday morning. The Winslow is bound from Charleston to Newport News.

—Who owns automobile No. 101? That's the question at the sheriff's office where the gasoline wagons are being coralled for tax and registration. The machine has been seen several times but it was always traveling too fast for identification. The sheriff and his deputies have thus far accounted for 63 out of 66 known machines in the county including the mysterious 101.

ATTORNEY ENGAGED

Will Measure Lances With Brilliant Lawyers in Case at Charlotte.

From the Charlotte Observer of Sunday, it is noted that Herbert McClammy, Esq., one of the leading criminal lawyers of the Wilmington bar, has been retained by the prosecution in the case of W. S. Biggers, the young white man charged in Mecklenburg Superior Court with the murder of Mr. J. G. Hood, a merchant of Charlotte, on the streets of that city last February, the particulars of which are well remembered as a sensation which stirred the State. He will be tried at a special term of court in Charlotte beginning June 14th and with Mr. McClammy and the solicitor of the district will be associated Messrs. E. R. Preston, Stewart & MacRae, Shannonhouse & Jones and J. A. Parker, while for the defense will be Messrs. Maxwell & Keerans and the law firm of ex-Judge F. I. Osborne. The plea will be insanity and the case promises to be one of the hardest fought in the criminal annals of the State in years.

Pritchard Memorial Excursion.

The seventh annual excursion of the Pritchard Memorial Baptist Sunday School of Charlotte will be run to Wilmington this year, arriving 3 P. M. over the Seaboard June 29th. The party will remain in the city and at the beaches two days and nights, returning to Charlotte at 9:30 A. M. on July 1st. A steamer trip down the Cape Fear will be one of the big features of the excursion.

RECITAL FRIDAY NIGHT

There is an event on tapis for Friday night at the Academy of Music of more than usual interest, the occasion being the closing recital and entertainment of the Expression Class of Mrs. Curtis-Arnall North. Several pupils' recitals have been given during the term but this is the first public entertainment and the programme is of a more elaborate nature. The many entertaining features will no doubt be enjoyed by a large audience.

Rehearsals are being held daily at the Academy of Music. A dramatic recital in Gypsy costume by Miss Jean LaFrage will begin the entertainment and those who have heard this talented young lady will know what to expect on this occasion. Following this will be a humorous monologue, "A Telephone Romance," (Pauline Phelps), by Miss Isabel McDougall. This dainty, sparkling little comedy is admirably adapted to Miss McDougall's sweet voice and charming personality.

The next number will be a dramatic dialect reading, "Ole Mistis" (John Trotwood Moore), by Miss Mary Houston, who needs no introduction to the Wilmington people as a young reader with great dramatic talent.

One of the most delightful features of the entertainment will be the children's play, "Joe," with little Miss Sallie Kingsbury in the title role. The play has a real plot and consists of two acts. Others taking part in this play are Misses Gladys Twining, Hazel Winstead, Pauline Williams, May Kingsbury, Mary Hall, Eunice Tucker, Marie Bonitz, and Avon Blue, James Woolvin and Clarence Sternberger.

Between the acts Miss Mattie Maultsby will give a humorous impersonation of the dear old Southern mammy.

Part II. begins with a pantomime, "The Romance of the Page," (E. Barrett Browning), by 12 young ladies in Grecian robes, namely Misses Mary Houston, Jean LaFrage, Blanche Penny, Anna Cavanaugh, Annie Leah Mercer, Marcelle Smith, Annie Futch, Eunice Tucker, Myrtle Vollers, Gladys Twinning, Hazel Winstead, Pauline Williams. Mrs. North will read the poem.

Probably the strongest dramatic number will be a scene from "The Bells" (one of Henry Irving's strongest plays), the selection being entitled "The Death Dream," and will be given by Guy LeMoyne.

As a finale a one-act comedy, "The Obstinate Family," in which the more advanced pupils will appear, will be given. The characters will be represented by Misses Isabel McDougall, Mary Houston and Mattie Maultsby; and William Corbett, Guy LeMoyne and Canova Peterson.

The entertainment will not be given for any special charity, but any proceeds after the expenses have been paid will be given to charity. An admission of 25 cents will be charged. Tickets are on sale at Plummer's, Kingsbury's drug store, DeRosset's, Yates' and Baxter's. Children will be admitted for 15 cents.

ANOTHER HIT FOR LUMINA

Japanese Dance Last Night Proved Entirely Successful Affair.

The Japanese dance at Lumina last night proved a decided success and the 2,000 or more who attended spent a most delightful evening.

The decorations were beautiful and elaborate. Five immense Japanese parasols, each measuring 10 feet across, were hung in the center of the ball room and from each was suspended many handsome Japanese lanterns with an electric light on the inside. Many smaller parasols with lanterns were also suspended from the ceiling and the walls were decorated with small parasols, Japanese lanterns and banners. Every light in the building was covered with lanterns, giving a soft, subdued effect. To further carry out the Japanese effect incense was burned. Pretty Japanese wind bells tinkled gaily in the breeze. The artistic work was done under the superisiono f Mr. E. C. Hudson.

The entertainment was spoken of by many as surpassing anything of the kind ever given at Lumina which is saying much. Japanese fans were presented as souvenirs of the occasions. In addition to the usual patrons of the popular amusement resort the visiting Atlantic Coast Line surgeons and members of their families were present, and added charm to the occasion. In compliment to the visitors gay Lumina will remain as decorated until after the departure of the medical men.

K. OF P'S. FEAST.

Enjoyed Splendid Supper at Wrightsville Beach Last Night.

About 25 members of Clarendon Lodge, No. 2, Knights of Pythias, enjoyed a delightful supper at Anderson's Cafe at Wrightsville Beach last night. The Pythians went down on the 8:30 o'clock car and returned to the city at 11 o'clock. Mr. H. H. Ford, who planned and directed the arrangements for the pleasurable occasion, was toastmaster and made a few appropriate remarks. There were no other speeches. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Anderson for arranging the special feast for the Pythians.

Sold Whiskey to Police.

M. L. Winner, a white man, who conducts a business at corner of Front and Dock streets, was arrested yesterday on the charge of having sold intoxicating liquors to Mr. D. W. Saunders, one of the new members of the police force, on the 4th day of June. The defendant gave bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance before the Recorder today.

GREATER WILMINGTON CLUB

Organization for the Expansion of the City Formally Launched at Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night. The Officers.

Backed by the sentiment of the entire populace of the city, encouraged and promoted by some of the leading and most aggressive citizens, who have mapped out a definite plan of action, the Greater Wilmington Club was formally launched last night under the most favorable circumstances at a big meeting of representative citizens in the Court House. Officers were elected, a committee on constitution and by-laws was appointed and a number of enthusiastic speeches were made.

The spirit which predominated in the meeting last night was the building up of Wilmington so as to give it the place in the Nation's affairs which naturally belongs to it. One of the chief objects of the club will be the collection and dissemination of information relative to the tremendous advantages to be had in this city both for capitalists and the laborer. It will go out after new enterprises and new citizens and not only welcome them to the city but offer them great inducements. The idea of beautifying the city was suggested and the great results from such improvements were told in most vivid terms by some of the speakers. In this connection it will be necessary to get the aid of the women and the members of the club have no doubt but that they will readily enlist in the cause.

The report of the special committee of fifteen appointed at the preliminary meeting some days ago was made by Woodus Kellum, Esq., and it suggested that the chairman appoint a committee of three to draft a constitution and by-laws and report at a meeting on the 28th of June when it is hoped that the Court House will be packed to the doors with citizens imbued with the idea of placing Wilmington in the forefront. The committee made a tentative draft of a constitution and by-laws which the special committee will very likely adopt with perhaps a few minor changes. The report of the committee was adopted in its entirety and the special committee of three was named.

The committee of fifteen recommended the election of the following officers and the nominations received the unanimous endorsement of the mass meeting:

President—A. B. Skelding.
First Vice President—M. W. Jacobi.
Second Vice President—T. E. Wallace.
Secretary—Woodus Kellum, Esq.
Treasurer—J. O. Reilly.

As will be noted the personnel of the officers could hardly be improved upon in any way. The men selected to fill the different offices are thoroughly identified with the business interests of the city and their prosperity is based upon the prosperity of the city at large. The club was exceedingly fortunate in securing Mr. Skelding to act as presiding officer. A more suitable man for the place could not have been found and his influence as the head of the organization will mean great things for it.

After the officers had been formally declared elected President Skelding named the following gentlemen as the committee to draft the constitution and by-laws which shall govern the body: Louis Goodman and W. P. M. Turner, Esqs. and T. D. Love.

The committee of fifteen recommended the appointment of eight committees as follows: Financial, membership, information, convention, transportation, entertainment, public improvement and publicity and promotion, and Mr. Kellum in a speech shortly after the adoption of the report emphasized the importance of the various committees. Mr. Kellum also explained that there would be two classes of members, the commercial and non-commercial and the dues of the former would be $5 a year and of the latter $1 a year, both payable semi-annually. He also brought out the point that this club would be non-political. He expressed the hope that within a comparatively short time the club would have headquarters and a secretary who could devote his entire time and attention to the duties of his office.

President Skelding called upon Mr. L. B. Rogers for suggestions. Mr. Rogers said that he had just returned from an extended business tour of several States and that he was more enthusiastic than ever over the future of his city. He spoke of being in Atlanta and declared that the spirit which pervades the atmosphere there is what is needed here. He suggested that city send out a special train for a ten days' trip through the South with 100 leading business men aboard to boost the city, citing as an instance of this kind of advertising the recent trip of the Nashville Boosters' Club which made a trip through eastern Tennessee, where great work was done in the interest of the Capital city.

Mr. Henderson Cole suggested that the sympathy of the women of the city should be enlisted and through them much greater things could be accomplished. The suggestion met with instant favor and President Skelding remarked that the city improvement committee could not do better than frequently consult the women of this city regarding matters which will come up before it.

An appeal for men was made by Mr. J. S. Funchess, who has just returned from Asheville where he attended the meeting of the National Travelers' Protective Association. He also spoke of the great need of city parks which has been agitated for many years. Mr. Funchess was followed by W. P. M. Turner, Esq., who recently removed to Wilmington from the Piedmont section of the State, where the people are eternally boosting their towns. He mentioned Greensboro as an example of what can be done by boosting. Greensboro is forging ahead at a rapid rate in face of numerous obstacles, especially in the matter of freight rates.

Iredell Meares, Esq., presented to President Skelding a bouquet of wheat, a splendid specimen of the kind grown in New Hanover county. The bouquet was handed to him during the meeting with the request that he present it to the chairman. Mr. Meares said that a few years ago people would have laughed at the idea of growing wheat in New Hanover county. He mentioned the importance of having a civic improvement league and called attention to some of the work that could be done in Wilmington. He gave many valuable suggestions for the improvement of the city in every way.

Mr. Joe D. Smith, who returned to Wilmington three years ago from High Point, stated that he had lived in High Point and Charlotte for some years and that it was in Charlotte that he learned to talk Wilmington. He thought that Wilmington should have more manufacturing enterprises and suggested several other things which would aid materially in making the Greater Wilmington.

Just before adjournment President Skelding arose and thanked the members of the meeting for electing him as head of the organization. He said that he sought the place not for the honor but because he wanted to be in a position to do the greatest possible amount of good. In conclusion he asked that any one in the city who had a suggestion looking toward the improvement of the city to mail it to the secretary and it would have careful attention.

Excursion From Rocky Mount.

On account of the baseball game here Thursday between the Sailors and the Rocky Mount team, the Atlantic Coast Line will operate an excursion from that city to Wilmington and the Rocky Mount Record says that a large crowd is expected to take advantage of the low rate. Capt. Cliff Cohen has been in Rocky Mount several days making arrangements for the excursion. The fare for the round trip will be $2 and the train will be operated on a convenient schedule, giving the visitors an opportunity to spend the forenoon at the beach and witness the game in the afternoon.

CHANGE OF TICKET SYSTEM

Slight Decrease in Fare Where Coupons are Purchased.

Beginning with Wednesday, June 9th, a change will be made in the ticket system of the Tidewater Power Company, which should result in very material benefit and accommodation to the traveling public, although only a slight reduction is made in the rate.

A book containing 24 coupons will be sold for $1, each coupon being good for one five cent ride on any part of the company's system. This would mean that the holder thereof could use his book for city travel, for travel up and down to the beach, or in case of coming to town four coupons will answer the same purpose as half of the present ticket. This means a 33 1-3 rate from any part of the city to the beach and return.

In addition to this a ticket good for children between the ages of 5 to 12 years, containing eight coupons will be sold for 25 cents. These coupons can be used under the same conditions as those referred to above, or in the event of a trip to the beach four coupons will carry the passenger to the beach and four for the return trip.

The above is an improvement over the present ticket system in the following points: It makes a 33 1-3 rate and the child's ticket apply from any part of the city instead of from the junction as under the existing system. These tickets will be on sale on all cars. All beach tickets outstanding at the time mentioned above will be accepted for transportation as at present.

EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON.

Jolly, whose recent appointment as traffic agent of the A. C. L. with headquarters in this city, has arrived and will be in charge of the excursion. Attention is called to the advertisement which may be found elsewhere in today's paper.

Pleasant Starlight Excursion.

The starlight excursion on the steamer Wilmington last evening up and down the river under the auspices of the Girl's Friendly Society was a delightful success in every way. Between 150 and 200 young people were guests for the trip and dainty refreshments were served on board while there were a number of very pleasing divertisements. The steamer returned to the city shortly after 10 o'clock all being supremely delighted with the trip.

St. John's Elects Officers.

These will be installed with officers of other Wilmington lodges on St. John's Day, the arrangements for which will be announced later.

THE A. & M. COLLEGE.

Need of Industrially Trained Men in North Carolina—Departments.

It is a pleasure to call attention to the advertisement of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. The State greatly needs industrially trained men, and the college is rapidly helping to supply this need. Its graduates are busy and successful in many lines. Many of our farms show the practical value of their training. The railroads, public highways, drawing rooms and shipbuilding plants call on the College for Civil Engineers. Our lighting and water plants and our machine shops are being manned by its graduates. Not a few of its men are superintending or managing cotton mills and dyehouses. Its chemists are taking high rank in experiment stations, industrial plants and departments of agriculture. Young men cannot do better than fit themselves for their vocations at the same time that they are being educated.

EVANGELIST TORRY COMING

Great Preacher Will be Here For Meeting Early in Coming Year.

Rev. R. A. Torry, D. D., the great evangelist who recently made a tour around the world with Alexander, the noted singer, bringing back news of over 200,000 convversions to the Christion faith and now at the head of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, has been secured by the Wilmington Ministerial Association to conduct a meeting of weeks in Wilmington in February or March of 1910. So great are the demands upon Dr. Torry for his time that engagements have to be made almost a year ahead and for that reason local Ministerial Association has taken up the matter early. On next Monday at noon the laymen of the city will be invited to meet the ministers and make still further plans for this great meeting.

SOUTH CAROLINA BANKERS

The local committee from the Wilmington Clearing House Association, composed of Messrs. Charles N. Evans, J. V. Grainger and C. E. Taylor, Jr., in co-operation with the arrangement committee and officers of the South Carolina Bankers' Association, have about completed all arrangements for the ninth annual convention of the latter organization at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

Mr. Evans is in receipt of a letter from Secretary Giles L. Wilson, of Spartanburg, S. C., stating that the formal programmes will be announced in a few days and that the attendance will be fully 200, while many of the bankers will be accompanied by their wives and other members of their families. The convention has been planned upon an elaborate scheme and the event has been thoroughly advertised in South Carolina, where 267 bankers are members of the organization. To illustrate the elaborate way in which the South Carolina bankers are advertising the convention, Mr. Evans is in receipt of a two-color circular being sent out by Mr. Wilson, bearing fac-simile reproductions of the cordial invitations received to meet at Wrightsville Beach from the Tidewater Power Co., Mayor Wm. E. Springer, President J. A. Taylor, of the Chamber of Commerce, the Wilmington Clearing House Association, and Captain Edgar L. Hinton, of the Seashore Hotel.

The bankers have arranged for a special train of Pullman cars over the Coast Line from Columbia, S. C., leaving there at 1 P. M. June 16th and known as the "Bankers' Special." This train will pass Sumter at 2:15, Maysville 2:23, Timmonsville 3:02, Florence 3:20, Marion 4:12, Mullins 4:28, Chadbourn 5:32, reaching Wilmington at 7:15 P. M. where a train of suburban cars will be in waiting to convey the visitors immediately to the beach. Invitations have been formally accepted by 200 people and at least 300 are expected. Captain E. Cliff Cohen will personally conduct the "Bankers' Special" from Columbia and a pleasant trip is assured to all.

Arriving at the Seashore Hotel at 9 P. M. President T. B. Stackhouse will call the Association to order in the ball room, an invocation will be offered by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., of Wilmington, and the address of welcome will be by Mr. William Calder, president of the Wilmington Clearing House Association, host of the Palmetto bankers. Then will follow a reception at which members of the Clearing House Association, their wives and other ladies will compose the receiving party. Refreshments will be served and a dance will follow later in the evening.

On Thursday morning special cars will be in waiting to convey the visitors to Wilmington where they will board the United States Revenue Cutter Seminole, kindly placed at the disposal of the committee by the treasury department, for a trip to Fort Caswell and probably a short run out to sea. While on the trip the annual address of the president, the report of the secretary and reports of standing committees will be received, the remainder of the day being devoted to recreation and pleasures aboard ship. A luncheon will be served by ladies of Wilmington, who are expected to accompany the party. The return to the beach will be in time to attend a special dance at Lumina by the Tidewater Power Co., for which very handsome invitations have been issued as previously noted.

Friday will be devoted entirely to business with addresses by prominent financiers of the Carolinas and distinguished guests one of whom will be Hon. Morgan H. Treat, treasurer of the United States. Governor Ansel, of South Carolina, and Governor Kitchin, of North Carolina, have also been invited and it is hoped very much that they will attend. If the business sessions are concluded in time, the visitors will be entertained in the afternoon at the ball game between Raleigh and Wilmington at League Park. The annual banquet will take place at night in the ball room at the Seashore Hotel at which time covers will be laid for 200. These banquets are uniquie with the South Carolina bankers from the fact that the ladies are always invited and that the bankers always insist on providing this banquet themselves, this, of course, carrying with it the prerogative of having in charge all invitations. This will be a most brilliant affair; in fact, the general scheme of entertainment on this occasion will surpass any gathering of its kind on the seashore this year.

Death of Little Daughter.

The sympathy of many friends goes out to Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly in the death of their nine-months-old daughter, Hazel Kelly, which occurred at the family residence, 1018 South Sixth street, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral services were held from the residence at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist Church. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

COAST LINE SURGEONS HERE

With representatives here from points on the system between Jacksonville, Fla., and Richmond, Va., the annual meeting of the Association of Surgeons of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company convened in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel yesterday afternoon. Many of the surgeons are accompanied by their wives and daughters and their sojourn of the few days at the beach will be most pleasantly spent.

The opening session was attended by some 40 surgeons and a number of others arrived on the night trains and were carried to the beach on a special car waiting at the station for them.

Dr. G. G. Thomas, of this city, chief surgeon of the road, called the meeting to order, after which prayer was offered by Bishop Robert Strange, following which was the address of welcome by Mayor Walter MacRae, who in his characteristic manner, bade the visitors a most hearty welcome to Wilmington and the beach and expressed the hope that their sojourn here would prove as pleasant and profitable to them as it would to the people of the city. Dr. Thomas then presented Dr. J. H. McIntosh, of Columbia, S. C., president of the organization, who responded to the welcome in a most appropriate speech, declaring that he knew that each and every one of the visitors would enjoy themselves to the fullest extent while on the beach.

The address of the session was made by Mr. George B. Elliott, assistant general counsel of the railroad, on the relation of the local surgeons to the legal department of the railroad service, during which he spoke of the scope of the work of the medical men and made several suggestions which he thought would be of value to them in preparing their reports of cases. He said that the legal department did not want the physicians to ascertain the particulars of the accident causing the injury of a patient as that kind of work was left to another department. The surgeon's work is to relieve if possible the poor suffering man or woman and his time should not be taken up in securing information regarding the manner in which the accident occurred.

In speaking of accidents and the attention given by surgeons Mr. Elliott said that it was not the policy of the relief department to deprive the injured of what damages they were entitled to by reason of the accident; that they wanted to give him everything to which he was entitled and no more. He said that no man could measure in dollars and cents what should be paid to a man on account of personal suffering; the jurors don't know, they merely guessed at what is the correct sum to be paid.

The speaker ably pointed out the difference between being partizan and being loyal. He contented that the surgeons could be loyal to the road which employed them and yet not be partizan. The legal department wanted the surgeons to be loyal to the company and the best way to show it was by attending those who were injured. He said that the legal and surgical departments should get in closer touch and in that way the medical men would have a better understanding of what was desired of them from the legal department.

Mr. Elliott caused a hearty laugh over the hall when he read from a report of a trial the answer of a doctor to a simple question propounded by a lawyer as to the nature of a wound on one side of the injured man's head, the reply being unintelligible to the lay mind. He made a plea to the surgeons to answer the questions of the lawyers in simple language such a is comprehensible to the average juror.

Mr. Elliott made a most interesting and instructive talk and was listened to with great interest by those who composed his audience.

At the conclusion of the address President McIntosh suggested that a recess of 10 minutes be taken and in the interim the delegates register. The motion prevailed. When the session reconvened Dr. Thomas announced that the privileges of the Atlantic Yacht Club, the Carolina Yacht Club and the Hanover Seaside Club had been extended to the visitors, and that they were invited to attend the Japanese dance at Lumina last night. He also announced that "his chief surgeon," Mrs. Thomas, would give a reception to the ladies at Lumina Wednesday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock and trusted that all would be present.

Upon motion of Dr. Thomas the annual address of the president will be made this morning instead of yesterday afternoon as scheduled owing to the fact that a number of the members had not arrived. The meeting then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

It is thought that the business of the association can be disposed of by this afternoon, but it is possible that the sessions will extend through tomorrow. The annual election of officers will probably occur this afternoon. At this morning's session a number of interesting papers will be read.

The association has been without a secretary for the past few months and Dr. E. B. Quillan of this city, assistant chief surgeon, is acting in that capacity. Mr. A. H. Styron, Dr. Thomas' popular stenographer, is the official stenographer of the association.

Last night the visitors were guests of honor at the big Japanese dance at Lumina and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed.

Every one would be benefitted by taking Foley's Orino Laxative for constipation, stomach and liver trouble, as it sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels and is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. Robt. R. Bellamy.

ALLEGED BOOZE SELLERS

Recorder Furlong Had a "Full House" Yesterday—Several "Blind Tiger" Cases Heard—Two Convictions.

By far the most interesting session of the Recorder's court in many days was that of yesterday when His Honor had several blind tiger cases for his consideration. The court room was well filled with defendants, witnesses and spectators and there was considerable interest in the proceedings.

The first defendant was Hartsfield Crandall, a well known white man, who was arraigned in two cases for selling whiskey. One case was not prossed and in the other he was found guilty, but sentence was postponed until today when two other cases against him will be tried. He was convicted of selling whiskey to Lee Justice upon whom he is also charged with committing an assault and from whom he is charged with stealing a watch. The defendant was represented by Walter P. Gafford, Esq., and Marsden Bellamy, Sr., and Herbert McClammy, Esqs., appeared for the prosecution.

A. H. Lamb, colored, charged with selling whiskey to Annie Lowe, colored, who was last week in Justice Bornemann's court convicted of masquerading in men's clothes and trespass, was found guilty and given a term of 12 months on the roads. Notice of an appeal to Superior Court was given and bond was fixed at $200. Mr. Gafford appeared for the defendant and Messrs. Bellamy and McClammy for the prosecution.

A case against Abraham Watson, colored, charged with selling whiskey to the same party, was dismissed on account of insufficient evidence. He was sent to the roads, however, being convicted of assault upon Annie Lowe. D. W. Ormsby, a white man, accused of aiding and abetting in the fight was acquitted, it being shown that at the time of the assault Ormsby had not seen the defendant Watson.

In the case of Linda Blount, charged with selling whiskey, a nol pros was taken. Ammie Crumber, a young white man, arrested Monday night for drunkenness, was held for selling whiskey and the case will come up today. James Davis was required to pay a fine of $5 for trespass.

The case against Ralph Kennedy, a white man, charged with assault and resisting an officer, was continued until today, as was also the case against R. E. Windham for interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duties.

Charges Against Patent Medicines.

Most of the charges against patent medicines as a class have no foundation in fact and are manifestly unfair and unjust.

There are a large number of standard remedies like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound used in thousands of American Homes which have saved hundreds of dollars to families who could not afford to consult a physician, and they have answered the purpose equally as well.

HOW TO GAIN HEALTHY FLESH.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company Advise Use of Samose.

While thinness may not be a disease, yet it is in reality a condition that needs attention. Under the nourishing power of Samose healthy, natural flesh will soon be attained.

This remarkable flesh-forming food strengthens the system generally and builds up the fleshy tissues so that good, natural plumpness results.

An ounce of flesh is better than a pound of theory. J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. believes that the best possible demonstration of the flesh-forming powers of Samose is to have it tried by his customers, and to induce them to use it, he offers to pay for the Samose in case it does not give satisfaction. No stronger proof than this can be given of their faith in it. they have seen hundreds who were weak, thin and scrawny, become plump, robust and strong, solely through the use of Samose.

If you are thin or in poor health, take advantage of this offer. You run no risk whatever, and the chances are 98 out of 100 that you will notice a gain in weight after using Samose for a week or tendays.

NAVY'S NEW PAYING SYSTEM

Money to Be Taken to Employes in Automobiles, Etc.

Washington, June 8.—Beekman Winthrop, assistant Secretary of the Navy, estimated today that the new system of paying employes at navy yards and stations, put in force in line with the general policy of economy inauguarted by President Taft, will save the government $125,000 a year. Further improvements are counted on the increase, thus saving many more thousands.

Commandants were directed to put into force a system of paying that appeared to them to be the best in time saving and accuracy.

Formerly all the employes were paid at one pay station in the yard. Now automobiles, bicycles, railroad cars and other vehicles are utilized to take the money to the employe instead of requiring him to come to the central pay station and stand in line a long time.

ANOTHER EUROPEAN WAR CLOUD

Turkey and Greece Both Claim Island of Crete.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Paris, June 8.—The Cretan situation is causing considerable anxiety in Europe. The protecting powers, Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy, have decided to keep their engagements to evacuate the island, July 31. Turkey has served notice that after this date, the island, while preserving its autonomous regime, must return to the Turkish flag and she is prepared to go to war on this issue. Greece on the oth hand, thinks that annexation to her should follow the evacuation by the powers, but the efforts of the King of Greece to secure the support of the powers to this idea have, up to the present time, being unavailing. It is understood that Germany sides strongly with Turkey in the matter.

STIEFF

Official Piano of the Jamestown Exposition. "The Piano with the sweet tone." Can you believe what you see with your own eyes, and hear with your own ears? Is it not a notable fact that the STIEFF Piano has been and is being used by every Musical fete in this city of late? Is it because they cannot get other pianos? Not by any means, it is because the STIEFF is the piano of quality, rich, melodious, easy of action, responsive, brilliant without harshness and especially adapted to accompany the human voice. Artists recognize these unsurpassed qualities of the STIEFF.

We also make the Matchless Shaw and sell it to you direct from factory at one profit, just as we sell the STIEFF; easy payments if you wish—you would not feel the cost, which is very small for such high-grade instruments. We sell cheaper pianos, which are fully guaranteed. Call at your home piano store and select the one you like best. We will take your old piano or organ in exchange and allow full value. Investigate. SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Warsaw, June 5.—Warsaw is to have a new $12,000 brick school building, modern in all its appointments, the work to begin right away. The Warsaw people are very proud of their graded school and loyal in their support of Prof. B. I. Tart, in his untiring efforts to build up the school interests of the town, as is evidenced by their vote today as well as in many other ways.

—Goldsboro Record: Andrew Jackson Hanford, of Nash county, 67 years of age, is the father of 32 children, 26 of them living, and 23 of them married and all have families. He has been married three times. By his first wife 20 children were born, the first eight births were twins making 16 children; then came four single births, 20 in all. By his second marriage there are 12 children in twelve years, all single births. And three years ago he married for his third time a young girl 14 years of age.

—Scotland Neck, June 5.—The people of Halifax county are much interested over the question of building a new $40,000 court house in the Town of Halifax. By an act of the last General Assembly the county commissioners are empowered to issue bonds to the amount of $40,000 for the purpose of building a new court house and they have employed Charlotte architects to furnish plans and specifications. Many citizens of the county think that the present old building can be well repaired at much less expense than $40,000, and petitions are being circulated through the county asking the county commissioners to repair the old court house.

—Charlotte Observer: That Charlotte is known in the Old World was evinced last week when the Carolina Ice Machine Company, of this city, which has been in operation two years received a letter from Palestine, in which information was solicited concerning the ice machine being manufactured by the company. In the letter it was stated that, having heard of the writer to know more of it and begged that a pamphlet be mailed him. The Carolina Ice Machine Company, since beginning operation has several times doubled its business and the growth of the concern has been marvelous. Orders covering the next few months have been received and additions and enlargements are continually being made.

—Elizabeth City, June 6.—United States Engineer J. E. Kuhn arrived in port this morning aboard the government engineers' stamer, McGregor, having as guests members of the Intra-Coastal Waterways Association. There were five or six of the distinguished gentlemen in the party and the party made a tour of the town and upon return to the dock steamed off at once upon the return trip to Norfolk. The party came down through the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal covering the route of the proposed Beaufort to Norfolk line of the inland waterway from Boston to Florida. It was intended to go from this city to Roanoke island, but owing to the stormy weather, the trip was abandoned. The steamer Jessamine, with a party of Congressmen, escorted by Congressman Small, left the McGregor at Long Point, Currituck, bound for Adams creek up the Neuse river, where actual work of digging for the canal has begun. The parties are in inspection tours and the stops at the different places have been brief.

—Vaughan, N. C., June 7.—Our town and community was shocked yesterday afternoon when it was reported that Mr. Cornelius Shearin, a farmer 60 years of age, had taken his life by shooting himself in the head and stomach with a shot gun. Mr. Shearin had been in very poor health for some months. He went to Raleigh and Durham a few weeks ago to get in a hospital, but could not get in. He was living with his son, Mr. William Shearin, about two miles from Vaughan. His wife and one son lives in Louisburg, he not having lived with his wife for about two years. It is reported that his family had forsaken him and that only a few days ago, in answer to an appeal to his son George, who lives in Louisburg, for help, he wrote him that he would not give him anything, and that he would not go to see him if he was dead. This, together with his poor health, is attributed as the cause of his committing the rash act. His son, with whom he lived, had walked out to look over his crop, leaving his father and wife and two small children at home. After he had been gone for about an hour the old man went in the house, took down the gun from a rack over the door, and went out and placed the muzzle against his head and pulled the trigger, the entire load striking his lower jaw, blowing it off and pieces of flesh were found stuck up against the side of the house. As soon as he regained consciousness he got up and went into the house, got two other shells and went back to the same spot and shot himself in the stomach, just above the naval, the second shot killing him instantly. When his son's wife saw him coming in the door with about half of his head shot off, she ran out of the back door and went to a neighbor's house. Mr. Buck Harris was passing the house just after the first shot, and Mr. Shearin motioned to him to come and knock him in the head, but he ran on down the road to a neighbor's house to summon help, but when he got back the fatal shot had been fired and he was dead.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatment. Do not experiment with untried remedies as delay may result in your cold settling on your lungs. Robt. R. Bellamy.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 8.—A quiet and regular morning in the cotton market was followed by weakness in the late trading when liquidation became rather urgent with the close easy at a net decline of 6 to 17 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 1 point which was about in line with the cables.

During the first few minutes the market sold 2 or 3 points above the closing figures of yesterday on bullish reports for the dry goods circles, scattered covering and a little support from local bulls but general buying was checked by the favorable weather reports and after some irregularity during the middle session the market became weak and unsettled under liquidation and bear pressure with July relatively easy owing to talk of large deliveries on that position and of cotton heading in this direction from the South, although the local stock is not yet showing any increase.

Very favorable crop accounts from the Southwest were received late in the day and were probably a factor on the decline while the local trade appeared convinced that the wet weather in the central belt had not been sufficiently prolonged or severe to have caused damage which could not be repaired under present financial conditions. Today's weather map showed no rain and the forecast indicated nothing more than scattering showers in some few sections of the belt. Advices from dry goods circles were very bullish and it was reported that one prominent interest had raised his bids for print cloths in the open market 1-16c without securing any large supply. Southern spot markets officially reported early were generally unchanged. The weekly report of the weather bureau was considered favorable.

Receipts at the ports today 13,510 bales against 11,333 last week and 11,434 last year ;for the week 55,000 against 59,361 last week and 64,544 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 3,015 bales against 2,303 last year and at Houston 706 against 3,508 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points lower; middling uplands 11.35; middling gulf 11.60; no sales. Futures opened steady and closed easy.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 8.—The cotton goods market continues strong. Printcloths advanced during the day to 3 7-16c from 3 3-8c and substantial sales were made. The export trade is fair with miscellaneous countries but light with the far east save with the Red Sea ports, where about 2,000 bales of sheetings have been taken. Bleached goods and wide sheetings ar advancing. In men's wear, it is stated that the spring lines of fine worsteds will be opened at advanced figures.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 8.—The stock market occupied itself today largely with the factors applying to individual stocks pending the appearances of the government report on the condition of the grain crops, after which there was a transformation of the previous tone. With aggressive upward movements in such influential market leaders as the Harriman Pacifics and Reading and a good advance in United States Steel the general upward trend was to be expected. The general movement, however, was narrow. Th rather urgent pressure of speculative liquidation which came upon the market opened today. Reading was the early aggressive leader, with a persistence of the reports of a coming increase in the rate of the dividend and of the retirement of the second preferred stock by exchange for common and first preferred stock each in half portions. Atchison, Baltimore & Ohio, Louisville & Nashville and Atlantic Coast Line responded to dividend increase rumors. In Missouri, Kansas & Texas the motive of the advance was the reiteration of the rumors of buying for control by one of the large railroad systems. United States Steel was again the subject of reports of accumulation by the Paris flotation syndicate. The buoyant rise of five points in the Southern Pacific stocks was due to the reported action of the directors looking to the retirement of the preferred stock. Keen disappointment came with the showing by the government report of the condition estimate for winter wheat and the acreage estimate for Spring wheat and induced general selling of stocks and brought price back to about where they left off last night. The work of advancing prices accomplished in the early part of the day was practically undone by this late selling movement, but there was some final rally.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $7,352,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today were 1,043,400 shares.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 8—The most largely attended and enjoyable Pythian entertainment ever witnessed in this section occurred last night when Lumberton Lodge, No. 35 entertained members of the order and a large number of friends who were not members, but many of whom expect to become members in the near future. The meeting was presided over by Chancellor Commander Correll, and the address of welcome was delivered by Mr. J. A. McDougald. Mr. M. G. McKenzie introduced Mr. F. R. McNinch, of Charlotte, who was the principal speaker of the evening, and the general opinion was that it was the finest ever heard here.

While short talks were being made by Rev. A. E. Baker, Col. S. A. Edmund, Gen. F. A. Bond, Messrs. Jas. D. Proctor, W. K. Bethune, T. A. McNeill, Jr., J. A. Sharp, G. B. McLeod, W. P. Barker, and others, refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, fruits, soft drinks and cigars were served in abundance.

Mr. W. O. Thompson, who had charge of the decorations, had the hall beautifully decorated—it was a thing of beauty. The musical part of the programme was in charge of Mr. W. P. McAllister, who with Messrs. W. W. Carlyle, Rudolph Carlyle, Woodie Lennon and G. E. Rancke, Jr., furnished delightful music during the evening. The committee of arrangements for the entertainment, composed of Messrs. A. T. Parmele, J. P. Townsend, G. T. Cox and J. D. McAllister, are to be congratulated upon the success which crowned their efforts to make the entertainment a grand success beyond all expectations. A large number of the brethren came over from Unity Lodge, No. 202, as well as several other visitors from different lodges.

Lumberton Lodge, No. 35 is now one of the oldest and best lodges in the State and has just cause to be proud of herself. The entertainment last night eclipsed all previous efforts, and all who were present would enjoy repetition of it. It was good to be there. Mr. McNinch returned to Charlotte this morning.

A Sunday School excursion, on which all white people wishing to do so, may go, will be run from Lumberton to Jackson Springs Friday over the V. & C. S. The train will leave Lumberton at 7 A. M., arriving at the Springs at 9:30, and returning leave there at 5 P. M., arriving at Lumberton at 7:30. The fare from Lumberton for the round trip will be $1.00 for adults and 75 cents for children. Passengers will be taken on at St. Pauls.

At the night session of the County Commissioners last night, the contract for the construction of steel tool proof cells in the county jail was awarded to the McAllister Hardware Co., at a cost of $2,200.

The family of Mr. P. Q. Weathersbee is expected to arrive from Wilmington to make Lumberton their future home. Their household goods have already arrived.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 8.—James H. Pou, as attorney for the receivers of the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, entered a plea of guilty in the United States District Court here today and a fine of $100 was imposed by Judge Connor. The charge was violating the United States cattle quarantine law in that the Seaboard hauled from Southern Pines to Richmond last Fall a car of cattle for Mr. Leonard Tufts, the millionaire founder of the Southern Pines resort, without displaying on the car the regulation notice that the cattle came from a tick infected district.

CONFERENCE ENDS.

Most Enjoyable Gathering at Louisburg by Ladies of State.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Louisburg, N. C., June 5.—The Woman's Mission conference closed last evening after the most successful meeting in its history of 18 years, and today the delegates are leaving for their homes with regret, being so delighted with the hospitality of Louisburg. Yesterday was filled with business reports of various committees and the finishing of auxiliary reports occupying most of the time. Mrs. R. O. Burton, conference editor, gave a splendid paper on Woman's Debt to Missions. Great interest was shown in the election of officers. All the old officers being nominated by the committee, the secretary was ordered to cast the ballot for their unanimous reelection. Four invitations were received for the next meeting but Elizabeth City was chosen on first ballot. The time was fixed for the third Tuesday in March, lasting as long as necessary.

At the night session Mrs. John gave a most interesting review of "The Frontier," one of the latest books on home mission work. Resolutions of thanks were offered to the Louisburg people, the pastor, Rev. J. H. Shore, and to Mesdames John and Scott for their faithful work and the conference adjourned with the doxology and benediction by Rev. F. A. Bishop. The conference hostesses had planned an afternoon tea on the lawn of the Green Hill home place for yesterday afternoon but the rain interfered to our great regret. Nevertheless, several carriage loads drove out there to see the first place of meeting of the Methodist church ever held in America. Souvenir cards showing splendid pictures of this historic old place were presented to all visitors. The people of Louisburg deserve and shall receive our sincere love for all time for their great kindness and generous hospitality and we hope to return at some future date.

To the SMALL MERCHANT,

Dear Sir:—If you buy money orders in making remittances, or register letters containing currency, you are practicing extravagance, and at the same time people to whom you remit form the impression that you are not well informed as to proper business methods.

If you will open a checking account at this bank and pay every bill with your own check, you will not only save many dimes and quarters that now go to waste, but will establish yourself with the only class of merchants which succeed—they all use their own checks in remitting.

There is another and more valuable feature—the bank will practically keep your cash account, and the bankbook, balanced each month, will show how much money you took in, how and to whom you paid it, and how much is left.

Yours truly,
